

20CS2016L Database Systems Lab – B1

Ex. No. 1B – Managing Tables using DML, DCL and TCL Commands

Date:

Aim:

To execute all commands of data manipulation language to get the desired output.

Description:

DML (Data Manipulation Language) Questions:

1. Insert a new user into the "User" table.

<Query>

<Output screenshot>

2. Update the email address of a user with UserID 123.
3. Delete a user with the email "example@example.com."
4. Insert a new event into the "Event" table.
5. Update the description of an event with EventID 456.
6. Grant SELECT privileges on the "User" table to a user named "john".
7. Revoke INSERT privileges on the "Event" table from a user named "mary".
8. Create a new user with the username "jane" and grant them all privileges on the "Ticket" table.
9. Grant EXECUTE privileges on a stored procedure to a role named "admin".
10. Revoke all privileges from a user named "guest" on all tables in the schema.
11. Perform commit a transaction in the database.
12. Perform roll back a transaction to a specific savepoint.
13. Perform set a savepoint within a transaction.
14. Enable autocommit mode in the database.
15. Disable autocommit mode in the database.

Result/Conclusion:

20CS2016L Database Systems Lab – B1
